DOB: 1994

SSN: 1131

Student at James Madison University. Never in Armed Services not on Active duty.

2. Describe with particularity your observation as to how the event giving rise to this litigation occurred, including in that answer facts which indicate that the Defendant was negligent.

ANSWER: We were seated passengers in a Chrysler minivan stopped at a red light when a bus the size of a school bus struck the Chrysler minivan in the rear which such force as I have never felt before. The force threw me forward into the captain's seat in front of me until the seatbelt restraining me caught me and jerked me back. The force jerked my head backwards with such force that when my head hit it bruised my head; at the same time it forced my teeth together and chipped my molar in the back of my mouth. I was dazed and it knocked the wind out of me. Even after my breath returned, I felt confused and could not understand what was going on. I looked to my left and saw Kelly hanging from her seat belt slumped over lifeless. I saw Anna in the same sort of manner. The only difference was that Anna seemed alive, but Kelly did not. I screamed. My Dad was driving and he turned around to see if everyone was
